Remember in your prayers the soul of

MARIE JOSEPHINE JAUQUET

wife of

JOHN B. DELWICH

born at Meux, Belgium, August 2, 1856, died in the Town of Union, Wis., April 1, 1922, buried in St. Mary's cemetery.

Why was there no hope for my sickness and must such a separation be caused? It happened like it pleased to the Lord. The Name of the Lord be blessed.

The sorrows of death have compassed me, I met with trouble and sorrows, but I called upon the name of the Lord. Ps. 114, 3-4.

The death of the just is precious in the sight of the Lord. Prov. XXXI, 27-28.

She died as the just die, leaving to all the example of a Christian life and to her children a name without blemish.

Beloved husband, death separates us now, but once we will live forever with Christ. My dear children, forget not the law of God, let your heart receive His Words; keep His Commandments and you shall live. Pray for me.

Help me in your prayers for me to God.
Rom. xv: 30.

Our Father. Hail Mary.
